

Suzanne Rougé offers readings with the medicine wheel, a self-generated ceremony and divination tool designed to help people interested in interfacing with their own inner guidance. Raising awareness with this reading allows you to interpret with clarity the circumstances you are attracting to your life.

Lisa Schiavone offers readings with the Starcast Oracle, a set of dice that provides a window to Soul through the language of astrological archetypes. This reading helps to distill inner longings into waking world actions and offer steps toward the unfoldment of purpose.

Marianne Green offers Sacred Sound Healings and Alignment. The Power of Sound gently dissipates blocked energy which is ready to be released. It then fills your aura with the higher frequencies and intentions, allowing you to step into your higher purpose and radiate your Highest Luminous Self.

Shaza Phillips, C. M. T. offers Biodynamic Craniosacral Therapy. In BCST the practitioner's role is to support the natural emergence of the inherent health of the client by listening deeply to the forces of wholeness. This approach has been shown to be remarkably effective and safe for a wide range of conditions.

Description

Our dreams come every night in the service of health and wholeness always guiding us toward becoming our most Authentic Self.

Working with dreams in a group setting provides greater depth of insights and builds a sense of community and connectedness.

In Circle Dreamwork, all participants discuss what the chosen dream might mean to them in the “if it were my dream” format.

Dream Portrayal uses the same group discussion method, combined with theatrical techniques and props, to allow participants to embody and interact with dream characters and physically explore dream landscapes.

Through these techniques, “every dream becomes everybody’s dream.”

Exploring dreams reminds us that we all share a universal bond through the language of metaphor and symbols. Sharing dreams together helps us to enter into a state of compassionate awareness of our common shared humanity.

Join us for a journey into the Unconscious to discover your hidden potential and learn the Language of the Soul.

I really felt good about the group energy. I thank-you for your dream knowledge and facilitation expertise and look forward to sharing more “night time stories” together.
